The Public Law Project is a national registered charity, founded in 1990, with the object of providing assistance in matters relating to public law to people and groups who historically have had little or no access to public law remedies. We provide advice and representation in public law matters, carry out research and policy work and provide training in a wide range of public law areas.

The training includes practical examples, case histories and sample letters to illustrate using public law in money and debt cases. The trainer also aims to deal with queries on local public law problems, offering follow up advice and support.
