MORNING SESSION

- 9.30 Registration and Coffee
- 10.00 Open Public Services: What this means for complainants and how organisations can use complaints to help improve services.
Jessica Crowe
Director, Centre for Public Scrutiny
- 10.30 Making the Perfect Complaint – A dialogue
We tackle the complaints process from both sides – with a senior caseworker at a law centre, and a local authority complaints manager. Lorna and Ivan will look at what actually makes ‘the perfect complaint’, how the process can be used, and sometimes abused, and how it can both remedy situations and alert authorities to failure in service delivery.
Lorna Reid
Welfare Benefits Caseworker Supervisor,
Islington Law Centre
Ivan Connolly
Complaints Manager, Islington Council
- 11.15 Refreshment break
- 11.30 Workshops 1hr 20mins please choose one of the following:
- Option 1: The Local Government Ombudsman
The trainer will take you through the process of investigating a complaint against local government. There will also be a short update on changes in jurisdiction of the Local Government Ombudsman including their new powers to investigate complaints against private care homes.
Tom Grimes
Local Government Ombudsman Investigator,
London Office
 - Option 2: Complaints to the DWP – update on issues and ‘facing the Tribunal’.
Tim will analyse typical problems encountered by benefits claimants and give tips on how to help your clients through the Tribunal system, and when it is appropriate to approach an organisation such as the Free Representation Unit.
Tim Baldwin
Garden Court Chambers
 - Option 3: The Ombudsman Services and Consumer Focus.
This session will focus on energy complaints – complaining to the service provider (the energy company) and how you can escalate serious or mishandled complaints, on to effective use of the Ombudsman Service in resolving disputes. This session will also touch on telecoms complaints and their resolution, as this is also within Ombudsman Services scope. Consumer Focus will introduce the European consumer ADR report looking at Good practice and what’s needed from an energy ombudsman scheme.
John Baguley
Ombudsman Services Limited
Dhara Vyas
Policy Manager – Energy - Consumer Focus

12.35 Lunch

AFTERNOON SESSION

- 13.30 Citizens Advice and the consumer
A look at the changes occurring in the consumer advice landscape in the UK.
John Nodder
Project Manager, Citizens Advice
- Plug the debt
Consumer Focus introduce their winter campaign raising consumer awareness of rights and responsibilities for those in debt to their electricity or gas supplier. This session is supported by a pack which will be distributed with the conference papers.
- 14:00 An Introduction to mediation – The parameters, pitfalls and potential
The Government confirmed its intention to promote mediation in the Dispute Resolution Commitment issued in June 2011. This snapshot will look at how available mediation is today, who can access it, how it happens and what outcomes can be anticipated whether the dispute is small or large.
Helen Curtis
Mediator, Restorative Justice Facilitator
- 14.30 Mediation and the Ombudsman
This presentation will look at the history to the LGO being given powers to mediate, the development of a “pilot” in Coventry and the extension of the service. It will also look at some examples of cases where the LGO have mediated – successfully and unsuccessfully!
Vereena Jones
LGO Assistant Ombudsman
- 15.00 Refreshment break
- 15.20 Panel Discussion: Non - litigation remedies and Access to Justice
Helen Curtis
Garden Court Chambers, Chair
Margaret Doyle
Independent Mediator and Consultant on ADR
Vereena Jones
LGO Assistant Ombudsman
Lorna Reid
Welfare Benefits Caseworker Supervisor, Islington Law Centre
Tim Baldwin
Barrister and Mediator, Garden Court Chambers
Dhara Vyas
Consumer Focus
- With pressure to settle more disputes outside the courts, what are the issues for complainants offered non-litigation remedies? Are the results of mediation and ADR comparable to those of litigation, and what kind of funding is in place, or planned, for these forms of dispute resolution? We will also be asking questions of arbitration in the consumer sector context as this field becomes increasingly complex with the introduction of different charging and supply regimes overlaid with consumer debt issues.
- There will be an opportunity for delegates to pose questions to the panel.
- 16.30 Finish
